

CONCOURSE D'ELEGANCE and BARBECUE 2nd July 2008

Some of you may be aware that the annual Concourse D'elegance is being held at our club night on Wednesday 2nd July 2008. This usually attracts a few members to bring their cars out and enter to see if their car is good enough to win a prize. This year, however, there is something else on offer for those who wish to enter a car or not. A BBQ has been arranged for the evening with a variety of tasty food on offer including Cumberland sausages, 4oz burgers, chicken pieces and more. The pub is offering both inside and outside facilities depending on what mood the weather is in that day!! I do, however, need to know how many people wish to participate in the BBQ by Sunday 29th June at the latest so the pub may know how many to cater for.
